

Schedule of Events

Unless otherwise indicated, all events are on the 2nd floor of the Marriott Union Station Hotel

THURSDAY, MARCH 26

Registration

2:00-6:00 p.m., Atrium A

French Historical Studies

Editorial Board Meeting,

5:00-7:00 p.m., Wabash Cannonball

Cash Bar Reception

6:00-8:00 p.m., Gothic Corridor

Sponsored by

Southern Illinois University Carbondale

Executive Committee Business Meeting

7:00-9:00 p.m., Link Room

FRIDAY, MARCH 27

Registration

7:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m., Atrium A

Continental Breakfast

7:30-8:30 a.m., Atrium B

Sponsored by Duke University Press

Book Exhibit

8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Atrium B

Session One: Friday, March 27, 8:00-9:45 a.m.

1A. French-American Exchanges: Gifts, Piracy, Love (and Money)

▣New York Central

Chair: Lloyd Kramer, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

Carol Armbruster, Library of Congress, Literary Piracy: The French Detective Crosses the Atlantic

Edward Berenson, New York University, Memory and Mythology in Gifting the Statue of Liberty to the United States

Nancy L. Green, EHESS, Class, Gender, and the Franco-American Marriages in Interwar France

Commentator: Lloyd Kramer

1B. Whiteness and the French Experience in West Africa

▣Missouri Pacific

Chair: Patricia Lorcin, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities

Ibra Sene, College of Wooster, The Influence of Race on the Design and Operation of Imprisonment in Colonial Senegal: A Case Study of the Prison of Saint-Louis, 1830-1940

Kathleen Keller, Eckerd College, People out of Place: Whites and "Suspicious" Travel in French West Africa, 1914-1939

Abou Bamba, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, Between Expatriation and Immigration: Mapping the "Invisible" French in Postcolonial Ivory Coast, 1960-1975

Commentator: Louisa Rice, Drury University

1C. Constructing and Defending Catholic Womanhood in the Empire

▣Frisco

Chair: Phyllis M. Martin, Indiana University

Sarah A. Curtis, San Francisco State University, Charity Begins Abroad: The Filles de la Charité in the Ottoman Empire

Elizabeth Ann Foster, Bates College, The Sisters' Mission: Nuns, Catholic Society, and Anticlericalism in Senegal, 1880-1905

Rachel Jean-Baptiste, University of Chicago, The Black Mother: Interracial Unions, Métis Children, and African-Women's Virtue in Post-World War II French Africa

Commentator: Owen White, University of Delaware

1D. Women, Education, and Power from the Old Regime to the 19th Century

▣ Burlington Route

Chair: Karen Offen, Stanford University

Linda Kiernan, St. Patrick's College, Dublin, Illusions of Influence: The Evolution of the Maitresse Royale

Karen L. Taylor, American School in Switzerland, Sensationist Epistemology and 18th-Century Pedagogy: A Case Study

Jann Matlock, University College London, Anatomy in Beauty's Empire: Teaching Women the Body in Late 18th-Early 19th-Century France

Commentator: Annie Smart, Saint Louis University

1E. Slums, Urbanism, and Place-Making in the 20th Century

▣ Wabash Cannonball

Chair: Yvan Combeau, Université La Réunion, Océan Indien

Héloïse Finch-Boyer, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Their Total Destruction Is Our Duty: Reshaping Réunion Island Shantytowns and Reimagining 1960s France in the Indian Ocean

Peter Soppelsa, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Envisioning Slum Clearance in Paris, 1889-1914

Elizabeth Sloan, Stony Brook University, Shantytown Services during the French Postwar Boom

Commentator: Kristen Stromberg Childers, University of Pennsylvania

1F. Sovereignty and Violence in Late 18th-Century Avignon

▣ Texas Special

Chair: Edward James Woell, Western Illinois University

Eric F. Johnson, Kutztown University, Between Rome and Versailles: Religious Ritual and Dual Sovereignty in Avignon in the Late 18th Century

Edward James Kolla, Johns Hopkins University, The Difficulty of Determining the Sovereign Will in Avignon, 1789-1791
Mary Ashburn Miller, Reed College, Spontaneous Combustion: The Controllability of Revolutionary Violence in Defenses of the September and Glacière Massacres

Commentator: Edward James Woell

1G. French Intellectuals and the Jewish Question

▣ Colorado Eagle

Chair: Joel Blatt

University of Connecticut, Stamford

Richard D. Sonn, University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Modernism, Jews, and Radical Politics in Interwar France

Jonathan Judaken, University of Memphis, Léon Poliakov, The Origins of Holocaust Studies, and Theories of Antisemitism

Commentator: Vicki Caron, Cornell University

Coffee and Tea Break

9:45-10:00 a.m., Einstein Brothers

Session Two: Friday, March 27, 10:00-11:45 a.m.

2A. Governing Desire, Disciplining Demands: Debauchery, Balloon Spectacle, and Distributive Justice in the French Revolution

▣ New York Central

Chair: Thomas E. Kaiser, University of Arkansas, Little Rock

Lisa Jane Graham, Haverford College, Debauchery and Policing of Pleasure in 18th-Century France

Mi Gyung Kim, North Carolina State University, Balloon Spectators

Charles Walton, Yale University, "Les Grains de la Discorde": Policing Propaganda, and Free-Market Politics in the French Revolution, Year I

Commentator: Sarah Maza, Northwestern University

2B. New Ways of Seeing? Documenting Colonial Encounters in the Interwar Years

▣Missouri Pacific

Chair: Vicki Caron, Cornell University

Alice L. Conklin, Ohio State University, Traveling Out: Fieldwork, Colonialism, and the Recasting of French Anthropology

Harry Liebersohn, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, From Colonial Encounters to Marcel Mauss's Essay on the Gift

J.P. Daughton, Stanford University, In Search of Suffering: The Discovery of Colonial Hardship in the Interwar Years

Commentator: Joshua Cole, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

2C. French Railway Companies and the Creation of Bourgeois Identity in the Third Republic

▣Frisco

Chair: Christopher S. Thompson, Ball State University

Stéphanie Sauget, Independent Scholar, Railway Stations and the Transformation of the Culture of Time in France under the Third Republic

Eileen S. DeMarco, Georgetown University, Forging Connections: National Identity in 19th-Century France as Engineered by Hachette's Railroad Bookstore Network

Natalia Starostina, Young Harris College, Dreaming of Eternal Springs: Nostalgia, Train Travel, and the Making of Bourgeois Identity in Interwar France

Commentator: Christopher S. Thompson

2D. Beauty, the Arts, and the State

▣Burlington Route

Chair: B. Robert Kreiser, American Association of University Professors and George Mason University

William Weber, California State University, Long Beach, Cosmopolitanism and 18th-Century French Opera

Ronit Milano, Ben-Gurion University, Un Vrai Roi: The Transformation of the Royal

Portrait-Bust in the 17th and 18th Centuries in France

Commentator: Clare Crowston, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

2E. Meeting Civilian Needs in Occupied France

▣Wabash Cannonball

Chair: Sarah Fishman, University of Houston

Kenneth J. Mouré, University of California, Santa Barbara, "Painful Necessity": Vichy's Organization of Food Rationing, 1940-1944

Candice Quinn, Marquette University, What We Were Allowed to Know: An Examination of the Content of German-Controlled Newspapers Available in Occupied France during World War I

W. Scott Haine, University of Maryland University College, A Place Where No One Knows Your Name: The Role of the Parisian Area Cafés in the Black Market, 1940-1949

Commentator: Sarah Fishman

2F. The Scars of Empire: Trauma and Transition in Post-Colonial France

▣Texas Special

Chair: Jennifer Milligan, Marymount Manhattan College

Andrew Daily, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, Imperial Rites: Panthéonizing Félix Éboué and Victor Schoelcher, Articulating the Union Française, 1949

Louisa Rice, Drury University, Becoming Foreign: West-African Students in Paris in the Wake of Empire

Kristen Stromberg Childers, University of Pennsylvania, Fighting Fascism in Martinique: Admiral Robert and the Legacy of Vichy Occupation

Commentator: Todd Shepard, Johns Hopkins University

2G. Recent Work on the History of Psychoanalysis

▣Colorado Eagle

Chair: Judith Surkis, Harvard University

Ben Kafka, New York University, Of Orgone Accumulators and Desiring Machines: Wilhem Reich's French Legacy
Samuel Moyn, Columbia University, The Assumption by Man of His Original Fracturing: Marcel Gauchet's History of the Self

Camille Robcis, Cornell University, The Anti-Oedipal Lifestyle: France, 1970s
Commentator: Gerald Izenberg, Washington University in St. Louis

Luncheon: Friday, March 27,
12:00-1:15 p.m.

■Illinois Central (Ticket required)
Keynote Speaker: Christine Bard, Université d'Angers
"L'Image des Femmes au Gouvernement de Blum à Sarkozy"

Session Three: Friday, March 27, 1:30-3:15 p.m.

3A. E-Scholarship/E-Publication: Roundtable Discussion

■New York Central
Moderator: Robert Schneider, Indiana University, American Historical Review

Jeff Ravel, MIT, CESAR Project
Patricia Lorcin, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, French Historical Studies
Rob Dilworth, Duke University Press, Journals Division

Comment: The Audience

3B. Diplomacy and War, Gender and Class, in the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Era

■Missouri Pacific
Chair: Gillian Weiss, Case Western Reserve University

Jennifer N. Heuer, University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Killed in the Arms of his Wife: Gender and War Propaganda in Late Revolutionary France

Suzanne M. Desan, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Diplomacy, Intimacy, and the Other: A Franco-American

Revolutionary Negotiates for Barbary Captives in Algiers
William Doyle, University of Bristol, The Napoleonic Nobility Revisited
Commentator: Gillian Weiss

3C. Fraternity and Sociability in Late 18th-Century France

■Frisco
Chair: Paul Hanson, Butler University

Jessica Fripp, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Fantasy and Friendship at the French Academy in Rome

Micah Alpaugh, University of California, Irvine, Fraternal Protest in a Time of Terror: Alternative Sans-culotte Strategies to Physical Violence in 1793

Commentator: Kenneth Loiselle, Trinity University

3D. French Border Cities

■Burlington Route
Chair: John Merriman, Yale University

Mark Sawchuk, University of California, Berkeley, The Journey of Abbé Cognetti: Identity Politics in Nice, 1860-1880

Catherine Dunlop, Yale University, A Border Site of Connection and Conflict: Strasbourg, 1861-1918

Timothy Baycroft, University of Sheffield, A Frontier City during the Third Republic: Lille at the Cross-Roads

Commentator: Christopher Fischer, Indiana State University

3E. Colonial Issues and French Politics, 1792-1825

■Wabash Cannonball
Chair: David Allen Harvey, New College of Florida

Jeremy D. Popkin, University of Kentucky, The Convention and the Colonial Lobby, 1792-1794

R. Darrell Meadows, Kentucky Historical Society, Transatlantic Families, or, the Atlantic Underpinnings of Displacement and Planter Politics in the French and Haitian Revolutions

Jean-François Brière, State University of New York, Albany, The 1825 Arrangement Imposed by France on Haiti: Political and Economic Ramifications

Commentator: David Allen Harvey

3F. Squatters, Real-Estate Agents, and Housewives: New Perspectives on Housing in France

▀ Texas Special

Chair: Sarah Fishman, University of Houston

Alexia M. Yates, University of Chicago, The Business of Housing: Real Estate in Turn-of-the-Century Paris

Minayo Nasiali, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Squatters, Citizens, and Asocials: Negotiating Domestic Norms and the Right to Housing during France's Reconstruction, 1944-1953

Michael J. Mulvey, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, The Problem That Had a Name: Desperate Housewives and Mental Malady in Parisian Grands Ensembles, 1962-1976

Commentator: W. Brian Newsome, Alfred University

3G. Reasons of State: Diplomacy, Resistance, and Decolonization in the 20th-Century

▀ Colorado Eagle

Chair: Leslie Page Moch, Michigan State University

Gloria S. Tseng, Hope College, The Banque Industrielle de Chine and French Influence in Early 20th Century China

Valerie Deacon, York University, The "Other" Resistance: The Anti-Republican Right in the French Resistance

Ivan Jablonka, Université du Maine, Le Mans; Collège de France, The "French Model of Integration" after Decolonization: About a State-Sponsored Migration from Réunion Island, 1963-1982

Commentator: Leslie Page Moch

Session Four: Friday, March 27, 4:15-6:00 p.m.

4. Recent Developments in French History

▀ Steinberg Auditorium, Washington University in St. Louis

Chair: James Smith Allen, Southern Illinois University Carbondale

Roger Chartier, EHESS, Collège de France, Early Modern France

John Merriman, Yale University, Modern France

Karen Offen, Stanford University, Women and Gender in France

Comment: The Audience

Cash Bar Receptions, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

▀ Steinberg Terrace and Olin Library, Washington University in St. Louis

Special Exhibits, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

▀ Mildred Lane Kemper Museum
"The Political Eye: Caricature and the Mass Press in 19th-Century Paris"

▀ Special Collections and Rare Books Gallery, Olin Library

"Paris from the Commune of 1871 to the Exposition of 1900"

SATURDAY, MARCH 28

Registration

7:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m., Atrium A

Continental Breakfast

7:30-8:30 a.m., Atrium B

Sponsored by Saint Louis University

Book Exhibit

8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Atrium B

Session Five: Saturday, March 28, 8:30-10:15 a.m.

5A. Producing the Arab Other: Orientalism in French Photography and Text, 1850-1910

■New York Central

Chair: Elizabeth Childs, Washington University in St. Louis

Julia Ballerini, Independent Scholar, Transcribing the Other: Maxime Du Camp in Egypt, 1850

Ali Behdad, University of California, Los Angeles, Photography, Orientalism, and the Middle East

Seth R. Graebner, Washington University in St. Louis, Nerval and Modern Melancholy in 1850

Commentator: David Prochaska, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

5B. Personal Status, Rights, and Power in the Old Regime

■Missouri Pacific

Chair: Leslie Page Moch, Michigan State University

Sylvie Perrier, University of Ottawa, Guardianship of the Womb: Female Body, Unborn Child, and Inheritance in Early Modern France

Anne Conchon, Université de Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne, Between Negotiation and Obligation: The Statute of Labor in 18th-Century France

Stephen J. Miller, University of Alabama, Birmingham, Provincial Assemblies, Direct Taxation, and Public Opinion in the 1770s and 1780s

Commentator: Nina Kushner, Clark University

5C. Group Identities and Experiences under Vichy

■Frisco

Chair: Simon Kitson, University of London Institute in Paris

Ludvine Broch, Brasenose College, Oxford University, French Railway Workers

in the Résistance, 1940-1944: From Humor to Sabotage

Daniel Lee, St. Hugh's College, Oxford University, Jewish Youth under Vichy: Les Éclaireurs Israélites de France (EIF)

Michelle Perkins, University of Southampton, Les Françaises au Service de la Nation? The Language and Experience of Social Welfare under Occupation

Commentator: Anne Simonin, Maison Française d'Oxford

5D. Youthful Optimism: Youth Culture in 20th-Century France

■Burlington Route

Chair: Barry Bergen, Gallaudet University

Jonathyne Briggs, Indiana University Northwest, Les Temps de Copains: Youth and Community during Postwar Modernization

Elana M. Passman, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, Practicing Rapprochement: French and German Youth in the Sohlbergkreis, 1930-1933

Lindsay Sarah Krasnoff, City University of New York, Graduate Center; Office of the Historian, U.S. Department of State, Creating a New Elite: The History of France's Soccer Youth Centers of Formation

Commentator: Karen Huber, Wesleyan College, Macon

5E. Women and Nationalism

■Wabash Cannonball

Chair: Sam Goodfellow, Westminster College

Rachel Nuñez, Hollins University, The Cosmopolitan Nationalism of Olympe Audouard

Carolyn J. Eichner, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Women, Naming, Names, and the Nation

Caroline Campbell, University of Iowa, Vampires, Spiders, and Pirates: Croix de Feu/Parti Social Français Women at the 1937 Paris World's Fair

Commentator: Máire Cross, Newcastle University

5F. Restoration Political and Social Thought

▣Texas Special

Chair: Gerald Izenberg, Washington University in St. Louis

William Logue, Northern Illinois University, Charles Fourier, Theologian: Utopia as Theodicy

Alberto Sahagun, Washington University in St. Louis, Liberalism and Industrialism in Restoration France

Annelien de Dijn, University of Leuven, Bertrand de Jouvenel: A Restoration Thinker?

Commentator: Gerald Izenberg

5G. Montesquieu on Monarchy, Toleration, and Empire

▣Colorado Eagle

Chair: Johnson Kent Wright, Arizona State University

Paul Rahe, Hillsdale College, Montesquieu's Critique of Monarchy: A Self-Destructive Anachronism

David W. Carrithers, University of Tennessee, Chattanooga, Don't Ask, Don't Tell: Montesquieu on the Jansenist Controversy

Michael A. Mosher, University of Tulsa, Montesquieu on Empire and Enlightenment

Commentator: Johnson Kent Wright

Coffee and Tea Break

10:15-10:30 a.m., Einstein Brothers

Session Six: Saturday, March 28, 10:30 a.m.-12:15 p.m.

6A. Print Media in the Third Republic

▣New York Central

Chair: Susan S. Waller, University of Missouri, St. Louis

Eric S. Reed, Western Kentucky University, The Mass Press and Globalization in Modern France: The Case of L'Auto

Patricia R. Turner, University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire, Civic Culture, Gender Politics and the Serialized Novel in Fin-de-Siècle France: The Journal de Roanne, 1890-1914

Kevin C. Robbins, Indiana University, Purdue, Eviscerating Elite Largesse: Radical Imagery and the Politics of Benevolence in the New Media of the Third Republic: L'Assiette au beurre, 1901-1912

Commentator: Patrick Eveno, Université de Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne

6B. Family Honor, Legal Justice, and Citizenship in Revolutionary and Third-Republic France

▣Missouri Pacific

Chair: Rachel Fuchs, Arizona State University

Laura Emerson Talamante, California State University, Dominguez Hills, Marriage, Family, Honor, and Divorce: Transforming Women's Rights in Revolutionary Marseille

Andrea Mansker, University of the South, Sewanee, The Sexual Politics of the "Injure Grave": Fin-de-Siècle Divorce Suits

Elizabeth W. Everton, University of California, Los Angeles, Par le Revolver ou par la Loi: Female Defense of Honor during the Dreyfus Affair

Commentator: Robert A. Nye, Oregon State University

6C. Race, Reproduction, and Family in French Colonialism

▣Frisco

Chair: Stephen Toth, Arizona State University

Margaret Cook Anderson, University of Iowa, Universal Suffrage Reconsidered: Metropolitan Pronatalism and the Establishment of Familial Suffrage in North Africa

Claire Salinas, George Mason University, Settlement and Co-existence: Civilizing Paupers and Arabs in Early French Algeria, 1848-1857

Nathan Godley, University of Wisconsin, Parkside, Family and Civilization: Conflicts between French and Indigenous Family-Law Codes in 19th-Century Algeria

Commentator: Stephen Toth

6D. Revolutionary Reform and Resistance, 1790-1800

▣Burlington Route

Chair: Paul Hanson, Butler University

Ian Germani, University of Regina, From Criminal Tribunals to Councils of War: Professionalizing Military Justice under the Directory

Adrian O'Connor, University of Pennsylvania, La Science de la Liberté N'est Pas si Simple: Educational Reform and Revolutionary Politics in the Thought of Honoré de Mirabeau

Edward James Woell, Western Illinois University, Revolution and the Rituals of Resistance: The Politics and Polemics of Sacramental Practice during the Oath Crisis, 1790-1793

Commentator: Paul Hanson

6E. The Seven Years' War and the Reshaping of French-Political Culture 1755-1789

▣Wabash Cannonball

Chair: Bailey S. Stone, University of Houston

John Shovlin, New York University, Selling American Empire on the Eve of the Seven Years' War: The French-Propaganda Campaign of 1755-1756

Jay M. Smith, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, The Power of Shame: The Hunt for the Beast of Gévaudan and the Seven Years War

Thomas E. Kaiser, University of Arkansas, Little Rock, The Austrian Alliance, the Seven Years War, and the Emergence of a French "National" Foreign Policy, 1756-1789

Commentator: Bailey S. Stone

6F. The Left in France after May '68

▣Texas Special

Chair: Richard D. Sonn, University of Arkansas, Fayetteville

David R. Applebaum, Rowan University, The Legacies of 1968: The Syndicat de la Magistrature and Prison Reform in Contemporary France

Bent Boel, University of Aalborg, The French Socialist Party and the Opposition in Eastern Europe, 1969-1989

Commentator: Michael Scott Christofferson, Behrend College, Pennsylvania State University, Erie

6G. A Return to the Land: Recent Work on Rural France in the Fields of Gender, Social, and Cultural History

▣Colorado Eagle

Chair: Sarah Farmer, University of California, Irvine

Emily Machen, University of Northern Iowa, Catholic Women's Organizations and the Creation of Rural Training Programs for Women and Girls in Early 20th-Century France

Elizabeth Heath, University of Chicago, Agricultural Education and the Creation of Skilled Farmers in the Aude, 1900-1910

Venus M. Bivar, University of Chicago, Agricultural Policy in Postwar France and Changing Attitudes Toward "La Terre"

Commentator: Sarah Farmer

Business Luncheon: Saturday, March 28, 12:30-1:45 p.m.

▣Illinois Central (Ticket required)
SFHS Awards Announcements

Session Seven: Saturday March 28, 2:00-3:45 p.m.

7A. Paris in Ruins: Disaster Tourism from the Revolution to the Belle Époque

▣New York Central

Chair: Stephen Harp, University of Akron

Chloe E. Jeffries, Oxford University, Spectators of Disaster: British Tourists and the Paris Commune of 1871

Jeffrey H. Jackson, Rhodes College, Walking in the Flooded City: The Limits of Flânerie in the 1910 Paris Flood

Victoria E. Thompson, Arizona State University, Time Travel: Touring the Ruins of Revolutionary Paris

Commentator: Suzanne Kaufman, Loyola University Chicago

7B. France and the Americas in the Age of Revolution

▣Missouri Pacific

Chair: Jeremy D. Popkin, University of Kentucky

David Allen Harvey, New College of Florida, Before the Deluge: Late Enlightenment Perspectives on Colonial Saint-Domingue

Kathryn R. Dungy, New College of Florida, Escaping the Revolution: Haitian Emigrants in Puerto Rico and Louisiana

Paul Edison, University of Texas, El Paso, Empire and Ethnicity: Early 19th-Century Views on Spanish America

Commentator: Matt Matsuda, Rutgers University, New Brunswick

7C. Politics on Display: Art, Ceremony, and Commemoration after the Revolution

▣Frisco

Chair: David O'Brien, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

Rachel Lindheim, California State University, Fullerton, Gros's Ambition, Bonaparte's Vision: The Politics of Post-Revolutionary Classicism

Allyson Jaye Delnore, Mississippi State University, Napoleon's Brides and Vassals: Weddings, Amnesties, and the Emperor's Coronation

Ronen Steinberg, University of Chicago, Atonement: The Ambiguities of Mourning in Post-Revolutionary France

Commentator: David O'Brien

7D. Gender, Class, and Sexuality Since 1946

▣Burlington Route

Chair: Donna Ryan, Gallaudet University

Éric Dussault, York University, "Saint-Germain-des-Pré, 1945-1960: Un Mythe Fondé sur une Histoire Tronquée"

Rebecca J. DeRoo, Washington University in St. Louis, Confronting Contradictions: Genre Subversion and Feminist Politics in Agnès Varda's "One Sings, The Other Doesn't"

Cynthia Sharrer Kreisel, Thiel College, Sexual Containment and the Resistance of Perceived Deviants in Postwar France

Comment: The Audience

7E. Philosophers, Artists, and Liberals in Post-'68 France

▣Wabash Cannonball

Chair: Sean Kennedy, University of New Brunswick

Hunter Vaughan, Washington University in St. Louis, French Philosophers and the Revolution in Film Aesthetics

Lily Woodruff, Northwestern University, Politics of the Individual in André Cadere's Institutional Critique

Emile Chabal, Harvard University, What Happened to French Liberalism? François Furet, Pierre Rosanvallon, Claude Lefort, and the French Liberal Revival

Patrick Eveno, Université de Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne, Les Médias de masse et les élections sous la Ve République

Comment: The Audience

7F. Religion, Justice, and Personality in the Old Regime

▣Texas Special

Chair: Thomas Worcester, College of the Holy Cross

Aaron Freeman, University of California, Los Angeles, Fetishism and Philosophical History in the French Enlightenment: Charles de Brosse's Du Culte des Dieux Fétiches

Lynn Wood Mollenauer, University of North Carolina, Wilmington, Courtroom Contests: Juridical Magic in the 17th Century

Charly Coleman, Washington University in St. Louis, Venal Office-holding and the Origins of Personhood in Old-Regime France

Commentator: David Troyansky, Brooklyn College

7G. Écrivains, Savants, et Intellectuels dans la Construction de l'Ordre Politique

▣Colorado Eagle

Chair: Bernard Lacroix, Université de Paris X, Nanterre

Arnault Skornicki, Université de Paris X, Nanterre, Guerres de Plume et Luttres Politiques: Les Lumières Mobilisées sur le Champ de Batailles du Libéralisme, 1763-1780

Xavier Landrin, Université de Paris X, Nanterre, La Genèse du Concept de Libéralisme en France: Classements Politiques et Formalisations de L'Etat (1815-1830)

Antoine Schwartz, Université de Paris X, Nanterre, Les Libéraux du Second Empire et la «Constitution» de 1875

Comment: The Audience

Coffee and Tea Break

3:45-4:00 p.m.
Einstein Brothers

Session Eight: Saturday, March 28, 4:00-5:45 p.m.

8A. Language and Republican Virtue in Early Modern France

▣New York Central

Chair: Gail Bossenga, College of William and Mary

David Kammerling Smith, Eastern Illinois University, The Languages of Economic Policymaking in Early 18th-Century France: Communicating Up and Down the Society

Junko Takeda, Syracuse University, Between Massilia and Salente: The French Nobility and Republican Historicism in the Age of Louis XIV

Johnson Kent Wright, Arizona State University, Situating Boulainvilliers

Commentator: Amalia D. Kessler, Stanford University

8B. The Family in 18th-Century France

▣Missouri Pacific

Chair: Jennifer N. Heuer, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Jennifer L. Palmer, University of Chicago, Race, Gender, and Redefining the Family in 18th-Century France

Meghan Roberts, Northwestern University, The Enlightenment at Home: Enlightenment Savants as Fathers and Mothers

E. Claire Cage, Johns Hopkins University, Priests and the Politics of the Family in Enlightenment and Revolutionary France

Commentator: Jennifer J. Popiel, Saint Louis University

8C. The Cultural Politics of Performance, 1890-1940

▣Frisco

Chair: Elinor Accampo, University of Southern California

Gretchen Elizabeth Smith, Southern Methodist University, Women Managers in Theatre: Bernhardt and Réjane

Ilyana Karthas, University of Missouri, Columbia, The Cultural Politics of Ballet and the Quest for a Modern French National Identity: Jacques Rouché, André Levinson, and Serge Lifar

Commentator: Barbara Day-Hickman, Temple University

8D. Religious Conflicts and the State, 1627-1932

▣Burlington Route

Chair: Joseph Byrnes, Oklahoma State University

Julianne Parse-Sandlin, Appalachian State University, Depictions of Saint-Louis-des-Jésuites: The Authority of Louis XIII and the Loyalty of the Jesuits

Jessica Jo Nelson, Purdue University, Recovering the Lost Children: The Impact of the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes on Huguenot Children in 18th-Century France

Kenneth J. Orosz, Buffalo State College, The "Catechist War" in Inter-War French Cameroon

Matthew W. McGuire, Kenyon College, Charles Péguy's Notre Jeunesse: France, Freedom, and the Promises of Modernity

Commentator: Joseph Byrnes

8E. Rethinking the Social and Political: Local Understandings of Collaboration and Justice

▣ Wabash Cannonball

Chair: Kenneth J. Mouré, University of California, Santa Barbara

Sandra Ott, University of Nevada, Reno, “Alltagsgeschichte and Purge Trials in the Basque Borderlands, 1944-1946.”

Vera Mark, Pennsylvania State University, Conflict Talk: Narratives of Collaboration in the Gers, 1944-1945

Audra L. Merfeld-Langston, Missouri University of Science and Technology, Economics Meets Ideology: Portraits of Collaboration in Marcel Aymé’s Uranus

Commentator: Kenneth J. Mouré

8F. Mobilisations Sociales et Construction de L’Etat

▣ Texas Special

Chair: Christophe Voilliot, Université de Paris X, Nanterre

Déborah Cohen, Université de Provence, Formes de Légitimation de l’Émeute: Des Oripeaux Empruntés à l’Autonomie (XVIIIe Siècle)

Thomas Marty, Université de Paris X, Nanterre, Mobilisations et Démobilizations: Les Conditions de Possibilité d’une Action Collective sur les Règles du Jeu Électoral

Commentator: Christophe Le Digol, Université de Paris X, Nanterre

8G. Once and Future Narratives of the French Revolution: Gender, Self, and State

▣ Colorado Eagle

Chair: Allyson Jaye Delnore, Mississippi State University

Lindsay Holowach, University of California, Irvine, Revolutionary Citizenship and the First-Person Female

Britt Christina Peterson, Northwestern University, The Production and “Packaging” of Noblewomen’s Memoirs of the French Revolution

Commentator: Sarah Hanley, University of Iowa

Conference Banquet: Saturday, March 28, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

▣ Illinois Room (Ticket required)

Keynote Speaker: Jolyon Howorth, Yale University and University of Bath, Sarkozy and France’s Return to NATO: Prodigal Son or Trojan Horse?

Sunday, March 29

Walking tour of Union Station
9:00 a.m., Concierge Desk